He waited until the list was finished and the speaker called for the vote. Hundreds of hands went methodically Hundreds of hands went methodically upward. The speaker asked for those opposed to manifest their disapproval in the same way. This was the moment for which Russell had been waiting nearly a whole year. He arose in his seat, standing partly in the aisle. Then he said, calmly and distinctly: "I am opposed to the name of Henry S. Tanner for home missionary."

The great audience was electrified.

BENEFIT FOR ORPHANAGE.

St. Ann's the Object of a Concert to Be Given Monday Night.

A concert for the benefit of St. Ann's orphanage will be given in the Salt Lake theatre Monday evening under the immediate supervision of Miss Nora Gleason. An exceptionally fine musical programme has been prepared for the occasion, which will include instrumental and vocal solos, songs and dances by about 150 children from St. Mary's cathedral, and various selec-tions by All Hallows' brass band. The evening's entertainment will in-clude selections by the following artists,

Immense Work on Leamington Cutoff. No work has been commenced yet by the Oregon Short Line for this year, as the weather and the ground will not permit anything of the kind. There is considerable work yet to be done on the Leamington cut-off, but the snow has interfered with the work. The steam shovel work on the big cut at Stockton bar is about finished. There is go on with the company will be in shape to go on with the construction. It will probably take about two months to finish the work of laying the tracks, and when this is done the company will have finished one of the biggest pieces of road improvement in the history of the west.

The greatest part of the undertaking which have barred the progress of the work. This has imposed the removal of mountains of earth, and without the machinery of the present day it would have been next to impossible or if undertaken at all would have meant years of expensive application. The time and expense consumed in such an undertaking without seam would have practically prevented the undertaking.

Work on the Malad Valley line will be commenced as soon as the weather becomes settled. The surreying is completed and the route has been staked off for the grading.

HELPED HIMSELF TO COAL.—An Italian laborer by the name of Mark Connelli was arrested yesterday by Officer Davies for stealing coal from the Rio Grande Railway company. Connelli lives near the depot and it is charged has been supplying himself with coal this winter at the railroad's expense. He has not been in America very long and cannot speak English. The court experienced considerable difficulty in making him understand, but finally succeeded in telling him of the serious nature of the offense he had committed. When Connelli had been lectured and dismissed, he fairly ran from the court room, much to the amusement of the spectators, and did not top until he was downstairs and out of the building. A Splendid Endorsement.

Mr. M. Van Buren, Publisher of the WESTERN POULTRY WORLD, of Denver, Colo., tells a straightforward story of suffering and relief that will bring courage and hope to thousands of discouraged individuals.

Everybody is familiar with the WESTERN POULTRY WORLD. It is the great authority on poultry and has thousands of readers all over the west, and Mr. Van Buren, its publisher, is a gentleman of the highest standing in his community, and his words carry conviction with them. READ THIS HONEST STATEMENT:

MYRON VAN BUREN.

Mr. Van Buren writes: "I think your treatment is simply the greatest on earth. It soothes and heals as soon as taken. Perhaps you never knew just what I have been through before I came to you. I first commenced with Dr. B—, then Dr. O—, then Dr. B— and Dr. M—, and another great doctor whose name I cannot remember, but who was a great 'stomach specialist.' The last named doctor examined me for two hours, and pronounced me in a CRICITAL CONDITION. I then weighed 128 pounds. He charged me $12 for examination, and said I must come every day for sixty or ninety days for special treatment at $2 per treatment. I did not take his treatment, but a few days later consulted you and commenced taking treatment, and GOT WELL AND WEIGHED 180 POUNDS WHEN I WAS CURED. I am a standing 'ad' for you here, and have three patients who have asked me about my cure and who say they will write you. I mail you my photo under separate cover. Kindly return it after using same as you see fit for the benefit of other sufferers. Respectfully Yours, M. VAN BUREN.
